DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or
REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: In page 4, line 20, "shoerter" should be changed to --shorter--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 7 recites the limitation "the second antenna arrangement" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hayes et al (US Patent 6,529,749).

Hayes et al disclose, in figure 4B, an antenna structure used in a wireless communication device comprising a transceiver 50, a first antenna element 46 with a first operational frequency, a second antenna element 46 with a second operational frequency, a first switch element S3 coupled to the first antenna element and a second switch element S2 coupled to the second antenna element, wherein the first antenna element is a director for the second antenna when the first switch is open and the second antenna element is a reflector for the first antenna when the first switch is open.

Art Unit: 2821

6. Claims 1-4, 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Thiel et al (US Patent 6,034,638), cited by applicant.

Thiel et al disclose, in figure 3, an antenna system comprising a transceiver 78, a first antenna arrangement (52,54), a second antenna arrangement (56,58), wherein each antenna element (52,54,56,58) is respectively coupled to each switching element (64,66,68,70). The patent to Thiel et al so teaches that the monopole antenna elements (52,54,56,58) can be switched by switching elements (64,66,68,70) so that one or more is active, with the others acting as parasitic directors/reflectors, see abstract. The antenna elements are quarter wavelength monopole elements, column 5, lines 29-32.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 5 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Thiel et al.

The patent to Thiel et al, described above, differs from the claimed invention because it does not disclose the electrical distance between the antenna elements (claim 5) and the special angle of the placement between the first antenna arrangement and the second antenna arrangement. However, the distance between the antenna elements and the angle of the first antenna arrangement and the second antenna arrangement are considered an obvious matter of design choice depending upon the desired characteristic of the antenna system.

9. The patents to McKivergan, Johnson, and Johnson et al are cited as of interest showing the antenna device similar to that disclosed.
